Access

Schiphol Amsterdam is the main airport of the Netherlands but there are some smaller airports (e.g. Rotterdam and Eindhoven) as well which are serviced by several European price-fighters (Transavia, Ryanair, Easy-Jet, etc). From any of these airports you need to take the train to Ede-Wageningen, which is located in Ede. From there you need to take a bus (blue buses line 84 or 88) or taxi to Wageningen. A good web-site to plan your travel with public transport is <http://9292.nl/en>. From the centre of Wageningen it is a 30-45min walk to the campus or 10-15min by bike. You can also take the bus, again line 84 or 88 in the direction of Ede, bus stop “Droevendaalsesteeg”.
